

JOLLY ROGER BEATS RAIDER.

The Boston Raceabout Captures Another Cup From the Local Boat.

The last yacht race of the season was sailed off the Riverside Yacht Club yesterday. It was a race between the raceabouts Jolly Roger and Raider, and the Jolly Roger won. This was the concluding race of the series between these two boats and the prize was a cup offered by Commodore G. G. Tyson. The first race scheduled for the day was between the Sis and the Jolly Roger, and the result was a tie—50' 10" to 50' 9". To sail over the ten-mile triangular course going to the Cowes Buoy first, there had to be a minute's standing time on the Jolly Roger because the course was to be sailed the reverse way, and the mistake was not found out until too late, and so the Jolly Roger withdrew. The wind was very light, from the southeast, and the Sis made little headway. There was a time limit of three and one-half hours on the race, and finding it was impossible to cover the course in that time, the Sis withdrew shortly before the check.

A triangle of five miles was then laid out, and a 1½ hour's time limit was given. The Raider and the Sis were the only boats racing together, the Boston boat being to windward. It was a starboard reach to the first mark. The Jolly Roger drew ahead at the first mark, and the Sis followed by the second. The lead was increased on the second leg and she crossed the line a winner by 1 minute 50 seconds. The final leg was run with spinners to port. The table follows:

*Entered
Yacht and Owner.
H. M. S. H. S.
Jolly Roger, B. C. Crowningshield, 3 44 04 00
Raider, H. C. H. S. 3 46 00 02*

The series between the Sis and the Jolly Roger has been abandoned, and the owners of the two boats cannot spare more time for racing.

Athletic Prospects at New York University.

Athletic prospects at New York University this year are brighter than ever before. The candidates for the football team have come from work and are more numerous than in former years. Manager Gould is sparing no efforts to secure the best men possible. Yesterday morning the squad was augmented by the arrival of the members of the Harvard team of the Bates College team for two years. He has entered the school of pedagogy and will play with the eleven on Monday the 10th. The football team is now well along and will be on hand to canvass the available football material. The team will, it is thought, be weak, but the manager is determined to make a larger band is expected out, as a number of the members of last year's team will report. The system of graduate coaching will be continued, and the team is steadily increasing in size. Next week the team will commence its final week of preliminary practice at the 10th Street Gymnasium for the great and exciting one all around games of last year's players have returned to college. A meeting will be held this week to discuss the advisability of putting a team in the field.
